The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.
Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their
"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, OCT. 28, 1904.
Messrs. Macfarlane & Co., Ltd., Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the Anheuser-Busch Association with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

Signed: ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSO-CIATION.

(Special Dispatch to Globe-Democrat.)
WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., OCT. 28.— No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given today by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivalled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given today by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In offering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

my audiences, and I must say that I always have pleased them. We sing a great deal of operatic music, as well as ballads. We make a point of visiting the hospitals and lunatic asylums in towns which we visit, in order to sing to the inmates. We have had some rather humorous experiences while visiting lunatic asylums to sing to the unfortunate patients."

The fair songstresses are great curio-hunters, and they recounted in very amusing language how they captured an ancient Maori curio in a field at Napier, and added it to their stock of curiosities, to be carried and labelled "figure of a Maori god, the only one extant." They have already sent home three cases of such things. Both are also fond of painting, but find it impossible to gratify that taste while traveling.
They got a present of a pet dog from a gentleman at Gore, and were very fond of it—calling it "Goro" after the place, which was an appropriate though rather sanguinary appellation. "Julie is fond of birds, too," said Miss Rose. The elder sister owned to the soft impeachment, but added, "I am much fonder of the human race than anything else."

Miss Julie then produced a copy of the London World, which in its society column says the event of the season was the "At Home" given by Lady Rosebery to introduce the Misses Albu to society.

The talented sisters reminded the interviewer that they are simply delighted with Honolulu, and that the climate, on the whole, has been the best that they have yet experienced. "We are in no hurry to leave," said Miss Rose, "and shall long remember the many kindnesses shown us at the Hawaiian Hotel and the daily drives given by Colonel Macfarlane."

It should be mentioned that the Misses Albu have decorated the corner of the veranda on the second floor of the hotel, on which their rooms look out, in delightful boudoir style with oriental fans and other esthetic ornaments. There they spend much of their time enjoying the mountain breezes and scenery, and playing seissors and needle with much dexterity.

Hood's and Only Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper berries and other well known remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative powers not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures when other preparations fail.

Hood's Pills cure biliousness.
